OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Culver, Page & Hoyne, Stationers, 128 and 130 Lake Street, Chicago.

NOTE——All persons presenting claims, either as attorney or on their own account, before any of the departments or bureaus of the United States, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required by persons in the civil service of the United States, by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August 6, 1861.

The oath may be taken before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other person legally authorized to administer oaths for general purposes; and any violation of such oath by any person or persons taking the same, shall subject the offender to all the pains and penalties of willful and corrupt perjury.

This oath is required from pensioners once, (on the first payment to new ones,) who are native born, or have been naturalized. If a ward, from the guardian, and whenever there is a change of guardian; if dead, from the person or persons executing the vouchers. When those of foreign birth have not resided in the United States, the magistrate may certify to the same; but if they have, and do not owe allegiance, it should be properly explained. When a pension has been increased, and the oath has been previously furnished, it will not be required again of the pensioner.

If taken before a Justice of the Peace or other officer not having an official seal, the fact that he is such Justice of the Peace, &c., must be shown by the Certificate and Seal of a Court of Record.

NOTE——All persons presenting claims, either as attorney or on their own account, before any of the departments or bureaus of the United States, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required by persons in the civil service of the United States, by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August 6, 1861.

The oath may be taken before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other person legally authorized to administer oaths for general purposes; and any violation of such oath by any person or persons taking the same, shall subject the offender to all the pains and penalties of willful and corrupt perjury.

This oath is required from pensioners once, (on the first payment to new ones,) who are native born, or have been naturalized. If a ward, from the guardian, and whenever there is a change of guardian; if dead, from the person or persons executing the vouchers. When those of foreign birth have not resided in the United States, the magistrate may certify to the same; but if they have, and do not owe allegiance, it should be properly explained. When a pension has been increased, and the oath has been previously furnished, it will not be required again of the pensioner.

If taken before a Justice of the Peace or other officer not having an official seal, the fact that he is such Justice of the Peace, &c., must be shown by the Certificate and Seal of a Court of Record.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Culver, Page & Hoyne, Stationers, 126 and 130 Lake Street, Chicago.

NOTE——All persons presenting claims, either as attorney or on their own account, before any of the departments or bureaus of the United States, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required by persons in the civil service of the United States, by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August 6, 1861.

The oath may be taken before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other person legally authorized to administer oaths for general purposes; and any violation of such oath by any person or persons taking the same, shall subject the offender to all the pains and penalties of willful and corrupt perjury.

This oath is required from pensioners once, (on the first payment to new ones,) who are native born, or have been naturalized. If a ward, from the guardian, and whenever there is a change of guardian; if dead, from the person or persons executing the vouchers. When those of foreign birth have not resided in the United States, the magistrate may certify to the same; but if they have, and do not owe allegiance, it should be properly explained. When a pension has been increased, and the oath has been previously furnished, it will not be required again of the pensioner.

If taken before a Justice of the Peace or other officer not having an official seal, the fact that he is such Justice of the Peace, &c., must be shown by the Certificate and Seal of a Court of Record.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—Culver, Page & Hoyne, Stationers, 128 and 130 Lake Street, Chicago.

NOTE——All persons presenting claims, either as attorney or on their own account, before any of the departments or bureaus of the United States, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required by persons in the civil service of the United States, by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August 6, 1861.

The oath may be taken before any Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other person legally authorized to administer oaths for general purposes; and any violation of such oath by any person or persons taking the same, shall subject the offender to all the pains and penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

This oath is required from pensioners once, (on the first payment to new ones,) who are native born, or have been naturalized. If a ward, from the guardian, and whenever there is a change of guardian; if dead, from the person or persons executing the vouchers. When those of foreign birth have not resided in the United States, the magistrate may certify to the same; but if they have, and do not owe allegiance, it should be properly explained. When a pension has been increased, and the oath has been previously furnished, it will not be required again of the pensioner.

If taken before a Justice of the Peace or other officer not having an official seal, the fact that he is such Justice of the Peace, &c., must be shown by the Certificate and Seal of a Court of Record.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

This oath is required from pensioners once (on the first payment to new ones), who are native born or have been naturalized. If a ward, from the guardian; if dead, from the person or persons executing the vouchers. When those of foreign birth have not resided in the United States, the magistrate may certify to the same; but if they have, and do not owe allegiance, it should be properly explained.

I, John Bauer do solemnly swear that I will support, protect, and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States against all enemies, whether domestic or foreign, and that I will bear true faith, allegiance, and loyalty to the same, any ordinance, resolution, or law of any State Convention or Legislature to the contrary notwithstanding; and further, that I do this with a full determination, pledge, and purpose, without any mental reservation or evasion whatever; and further, that I will well and faithfully perform all the duties which may be required of me by law: So help me God.
